[Intro] C G Am F (2 bars on each chord)

[Verse 1]

C
Well I wake up one morning, drink a coffee and tea, there's nobody home but little old me
Am
F
I grab this ukulele and I start strummin', and here's what I came up with

C
I'm thinkin' bout the world and everyone in it, lookin' at the sky and the way that it's spinning
Am
F
I ain't no genius but if you'll listen, here's a few things that I've realized...

[Chorus]

C
Everyone's got issues, everybody's got faults, bad things happen every once in a while
Am
F
Take the good with the bad, try to put on a smile, cause I'm damn sure no one's perfect (you aren't) 3rd time
C
G
(I'm not) 4th time
We fight with the ones that we love the most So when we kiss and make up, let's make a toast
Am
F (one strum)
Ya, cheers to the one and only thing that I know, it's a great day to be alive
C
G
Am
F
Oh oh ohhh Oh oh ohhh Oh oh ohh

[Verse 2]

C
I was hangin' with some friends I ain't see in a dog's age we're mostly the same but a few things have changed
Am
F
Reminiscing 'bout the past and the good old days and here's what I remember...

[Repeat Chorus]

[Bridge]

Am
Well you should have done this or done it like that, everyone thinks they know what's best
F
G
Here's what I know you can figure out the rest

[Repeat Chorus] x2 Second time with single strums
